MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel Andrew J. Goodpaster

13 July 1956

1. Mr. Allen Dulles decided this morning to handle the question of the future of AQUATONE in a slightly different manner than from that discussed with you yesterday. He felt that it would be unwise to press for too hurried a decision especially since he could not participate in discussion of the matter today. Accordingly, we are going to remain inactive for at least a week and he hopes to arrange a full briefing and discussion of its future with the President at the latter's convenience after his return to Washington.

2. The Director advised the Secretary of State of this change in plan. Under the circumstances we are not sending up any material today.

(Signed)

RICHARD M. BISSELL, JR.
